MODERN SLAVERY

Policy Statement

Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights.

It takes various forms, such as slavery, servitude, forced and compulsory labour and human trafficking, all of which have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty by another in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain.

Taylor Made Services Uk Ltd have a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and we are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships.

We are committed to implement and enforce effective systems and controls to ensure modern slavery is not taking place anywhere in our own business or our supply chain.

We are also committed to ensuring there is transparency in our own business and in our approach to tackling modern slavery throughout our supply chain.

We expect the same high standards from all of our contractors, suppliers and other business partners.

COMPLIANCE with the Policy

You must ensure that you read, understand and comply with this policy.

The prevention, detection and reporting of modern slavery in any part of our business or supply chain is the responsibility of all those working for us or under our control.

You are required to avoid any activity that might lead to or suggest a breach of this policy.

You must notify HR department as soon as possible if you believe or suspect that a conflict with this policy has occurred, or may occur in the future.

You are encouraged to raise concerns about any issue of suspicion of modern slavery in any parts of our business or the supply chains of any supplier tier at the earliest possible stage.

If you believe or suspect a breach of this policy has occurred or that it may occur you must notify HR department or report it in accordance with our Whistleblowing Policy as soon as possible.

RESPONSIBILITY with the Policy

The HR Manager has overall responsibility for ensuring this policy complies with our legal and ethical obligations and that all those under our control comply with it.

The HR department has primary and day-to-day responsibility for implementing this policy, monitoring its use and effectiveness and dealing with any queries about it.

Our zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery must be communicated to all suppliers, contractors and business partners at the outset of our business relationship with them and reinforced as appropriate thereafter.

Any worker who breaches this policy will face disciplinary action, which could result in dismissal for misconduct or gross misconduct.

We may terminate our relationship with other individuals and organisations working on our behalf if they breach this policy.

Whistleblowing

Policy Statement

This policy aims to enable and encourage staff to raise concerns within Taylor Made Services UK Ltd.

It recognises a worker's legal rights to make a protected disclosure to certain prescribed persons or bodies under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 and any subsequent legislation, as incorporated into the Employment Rights Act 1996.

Taylor Made Services UK Ltd is committed to creating a safe, open and transparent workplace culture, where workers are encouraged to raise concerns at the earliest opportunity.

Taylor Made Services UK Ltd recognises that workers are often the first to realise that there may be something seriously wrong within an organisation.

It is important to Taylor Made Services UK Ltd that any fraud, misconduct or wrongdoing by workers or officers of the organisation is reported and properly dealt with. Taylor Made Services UK Ltd is committed to tackle malpractice and wrongdoing. Everyone should be aware of the importance of preventing and eliminating wrongdoing at work. If any cases of wrongdoing are upheld they will be seriously dealt with.

RESPONSIBILITY with the Policy

This policy applies to all staff including temporary, casual and agency staff, work experience, trainees and apprentices. Other individuals who work or have worked within the organisation, such as former staff, volunteers, the self-employed and contractors, are also encouraged to use it.

For the purpose of this policy, Taylor Made Services UK Ltd recognises that whistleblowing is the passing on of information about wrongdoing at work. The whistleblower must reasonably believe that they are acting in the public interest.

It is not necessary for the member of staff to have proof that wrongdoing is being, has been, or is likely to be committed. A reasonable belief is sufficient to disclose the concern. The member of staff has no responsibility for investigating the wrongdoing. It is the organisation's responsibility to ensure that an investigation takes place.

A member of staff who makes such a protected disclosure has the right not to be dismissed, subjected to any other detriment, or victimised because they have made a disclosure.

How to raise a concern

The following people have been nominated and agreed by Taylor Made Services UK Ltd:

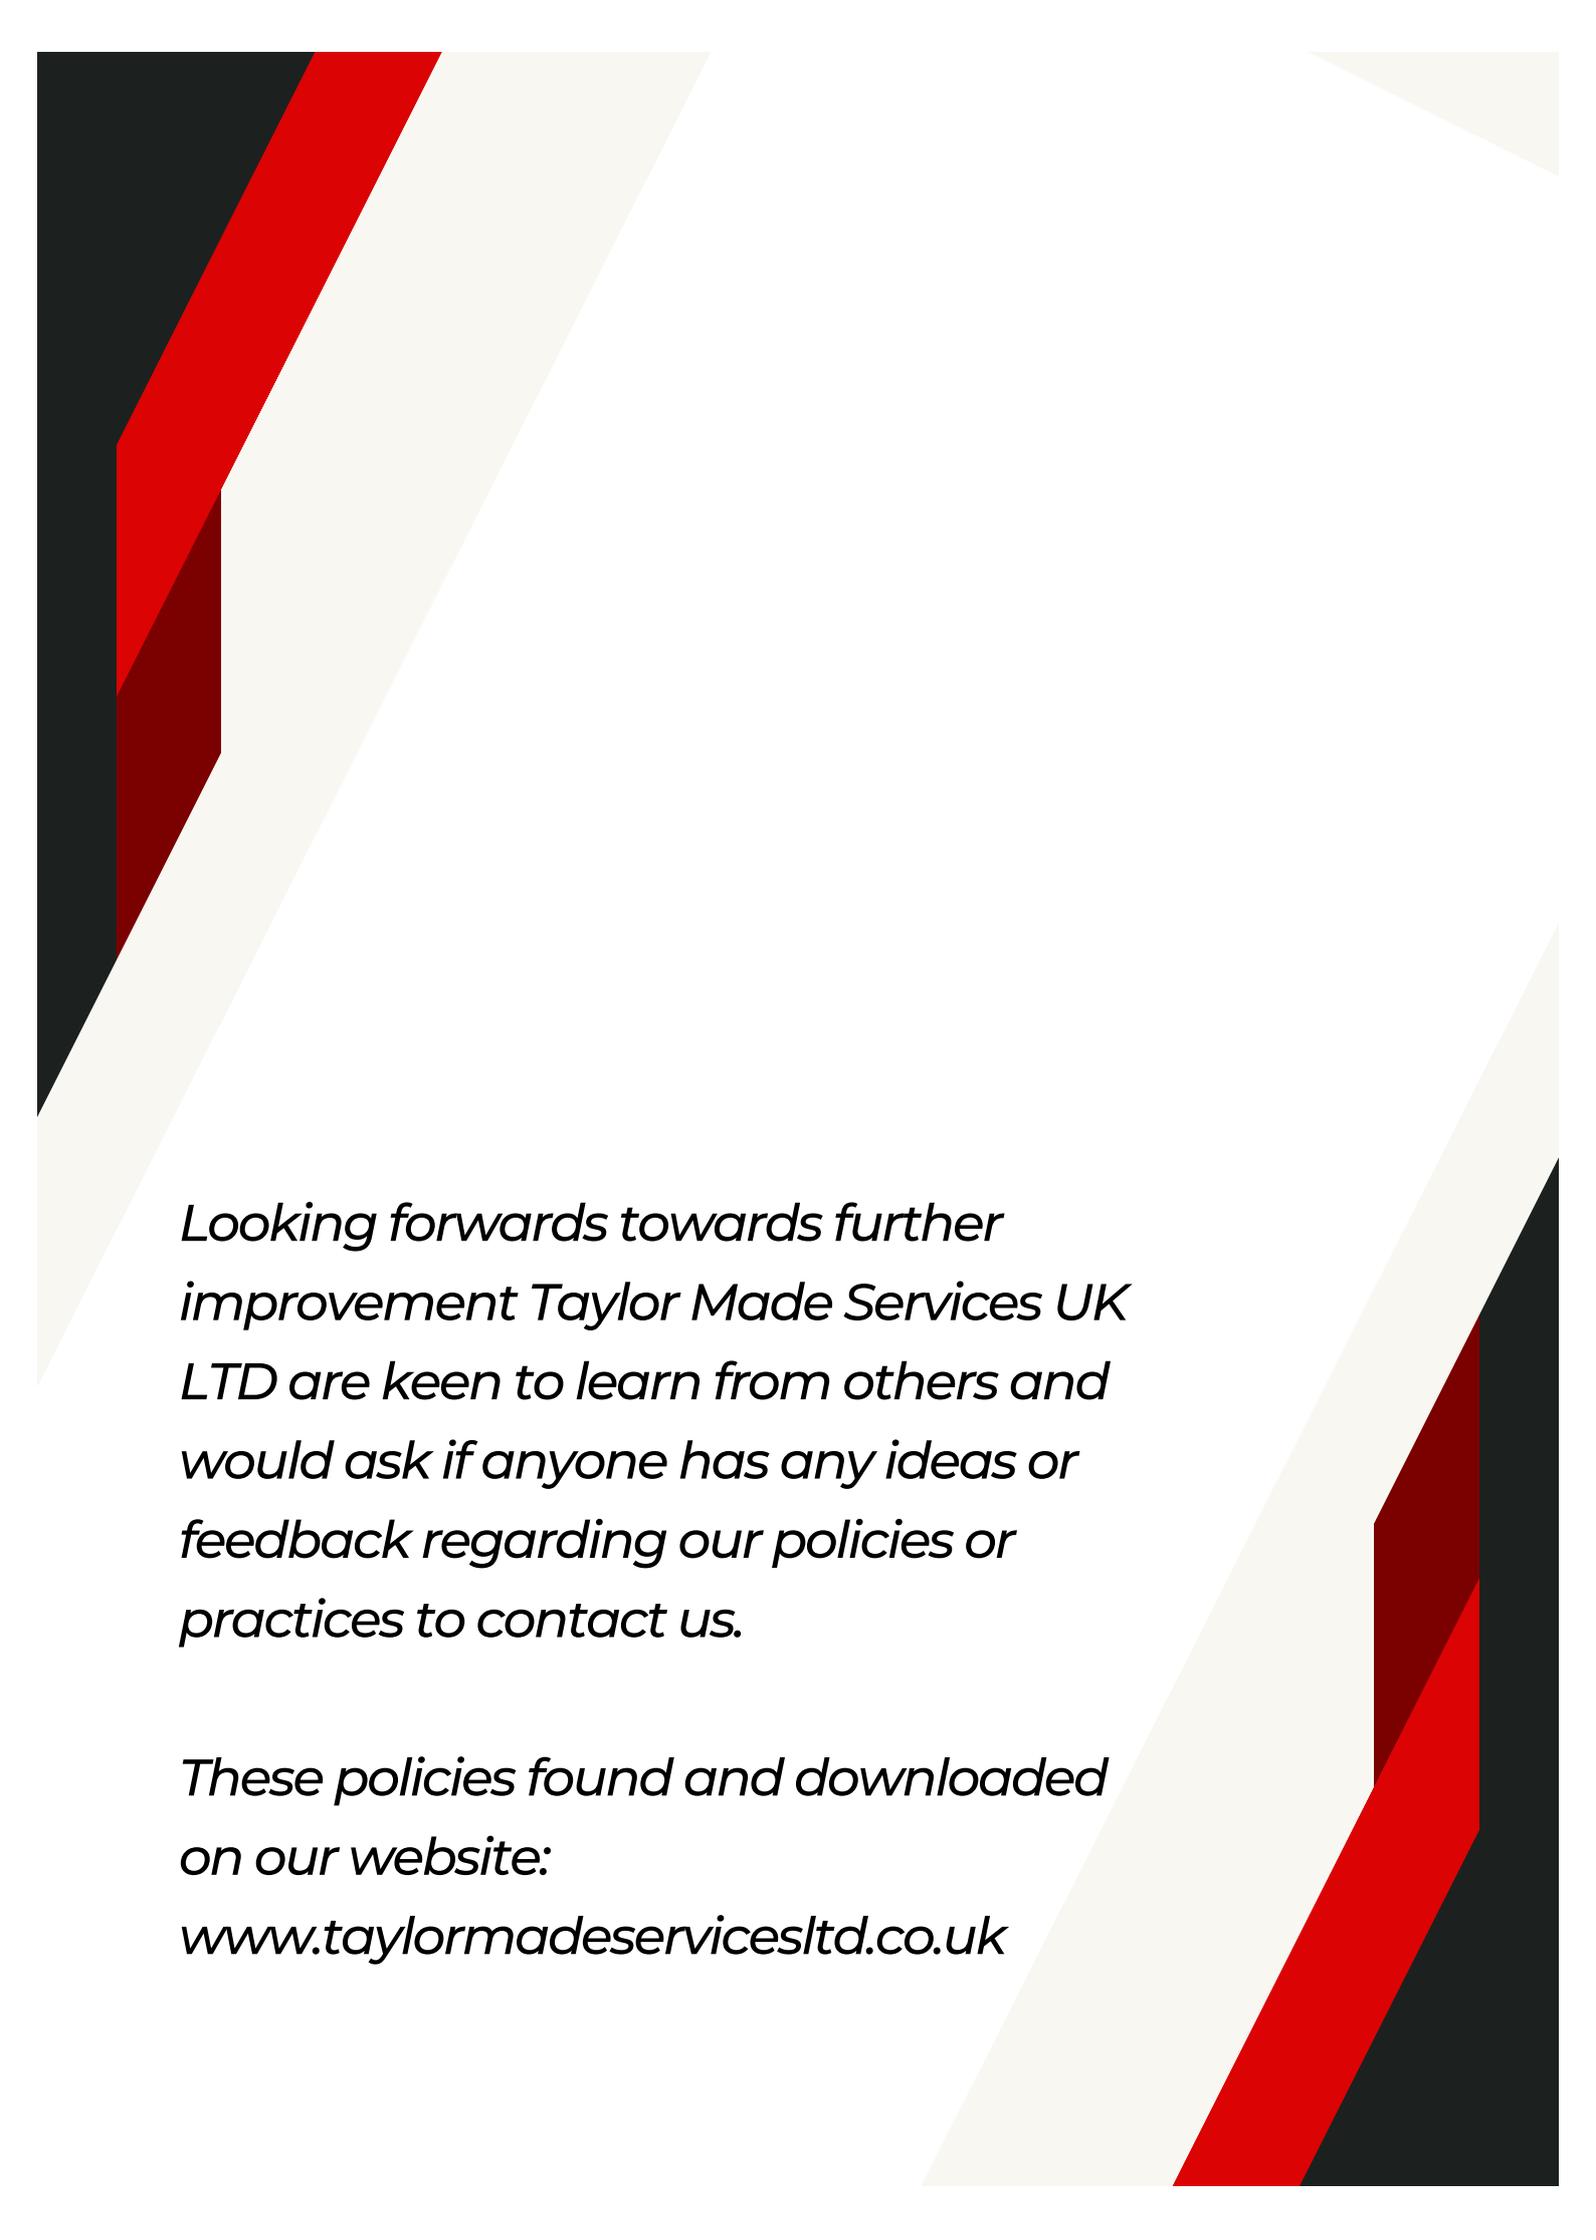

- Christopher Taylor - Managing Director
chris@taylormadeservicesltd.co.uk
- Svetlana Zaslavska - Office Manager
svet@taylormadeservicesltd.co.uk
- Zaiga Tapina - HR & Payroll Manager
zaiga@taylormadeservicesltd.co.uk

These designated officers will act as an independent and impartial source of advice to staff at any stage of raising a concern, with access to anyone in the organisation.

All these people have been given special responsibility and training in dealing with whistleblowing concerns and will give you information about where you can go for more support.

Concerns should be raised in writing (including email). The letter should set out the background and history of the concerns, giving names, dates and places where possible and the reason why the member of staff is making the disclosure. If the individual does not feel able to make the disclosure in writing, an interview will be arranged.

If you wish to stay anonymous you can send anonymous message to following phone number +447519776036.
